

Certificate of Achievement

Juanita Downey

has completed the following course:

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW FOR BUSINESS
RMIT UNIVERSITY AND AUSTRALIAN RED CROSS

This online course provided the knowledge of international humanitarian law relevant to business to allow for the law's effective application when doing business in conflict-affected areas.

4 weeks, 3 hours per week

Dr Jonathan Kolieb
Senior Lecturer, International Law
RMIT University

Fauve Kurnadi
Legal Adviser (Academic and Private Sector),
International Humanitarian Law
Australian Red Cross

In association with

The person named on this certificate has completed the activities in the attached transcript. For more information about Certificates of Achievement and the effort required to become eligible, visit futurelearn.com/proof-of-learning/certificate-of-achievement.

This certificate represents proof of learning. It is not a formal qualification, degree, or part of a degree.

Juanita Downey

has completed the following course:

INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW FOR BUSINESS RMIT UNIVERSITY AND AUSTRALIAN RED CROSS

83%
OVERALL
SCORE

This online course provided an overview of the principles and rules of international humanitarian law with a particular emphasis on how they apply to business activities. The course covered the rights, risks and responsibilities arising from international humanitarian law for modern companies that do business or invest in conflict-affected areas. The course provided practical tools and guidance on how a business can implement and operationalise respect for international humanitarian law.

STUDY REQUIREMENT

4 weeks, 3 hours per week

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Explore IHL and its significance for companies
- Describe how IHL limits suffering in armed conflict
- Describe where and when IHL applies
- Summarise the principles of IHL, including those most relevant to business activities
- Explain the positive impact of IHL awareness amongst businesses

SYLLABUS

- Fundamental concepts of international humanitarian law (IHL)
- Doing business in armed conflict in a responsible and ethical manner
- International humanitarian law risks, rights and responsibilities
- Implementing international humanitarian law best practice in business – frameworks for applying and actioning the knowledge in practical ways.